The Wonderful Wizard of Oz by Frank Baum

Climax: Dorothy kills the Witch.

Rising Action: The house blows away and lands on top of the Wicked Witch of the East in Munchkin Country. All Dorothy wants to do is return home, and Glinda, the Good Witch of the South who gives Dorothy a pair of silver slippers, tells her to go to the Land of Oz to see the wizard. On her journey she meets Scarecrow, Tin Woodman, and Cowardly Lion who also have wishes that they hope the wizard will solve. When they arrive, the wizard tells them he will only help them if they successfully kill the Wicked Witch of the West.

Falling Action: They return to the wizard who grants all of their wishes; Scarecrow gets a brain, Tin Woodman gets a heart, and Cowardly Lion gets courage while Dorothy, Toto and the wizard will fly to Kansas. However, Toto jumps out of the balloon, so Dorothy follows her dog. Then Glinda tells Dorothy all she has to do is click her silver slippers and say her wish out loud.

Exposition: Dorothy and her dog are at her aunt and uncle's home in rural Kansas. A cyclone hits, and instead of being in the storm cellar, they are in the house.

Resolution: Surrounded by relatives, Dorothy wakes up with Toto to discover this has all been a dream.

readwritethink International Reading Association NCTE Copyright 2012 IRA/NCTE. All rights reserved. ReadWriteThink materials may be reproduced for educational purposes.