Student Reflection Questions

1. What did you learn about modern Native American cultures from the books you read? Talk about at least one thing.

2. What did you learn about modern Native American cultures from the Web sites you visited? Talk about at least one thing.

3. Imagine someone saying to you, "Learning about Native Americans isn't very important. They're mostly gone anyway." What would you tell them to change their understanding?

   You can use your answers from 1. and 2. as a start, but your answer should include new information and reasons.

read·write·think
International Reading Association NCTE
Supported by the Verizon Foundation
Copyright 2008 NCTE/IRA. All rights reserved. ReadWriteThink materials may be reproduced for educational purposes.