Tituba

The Crucible

1. Description
 Setting: Salem, Massachusetts
 Appearance: Tan/dark skin, elaborate clothes
 Personality: Hospitable, superstitious, courageous

2. Insights
 Thoughts: Tituba was the first witch to be accused and confess to witchcraft.
 Feelings: She likely confessed because she was afraid of further punishment.

Tituba

3. Development
 Problem: Tituba is accused of witchcraft and admits guilt.
 Goal: Tituba was just trying to escape the frivolous witchcraft charge.
 Outcome: She appeared to acknowledge God and was pronounced cured.

4. Statements and Actions
 Statements: "I do believe somebody else be witchin' these children"
 Actions: Tituba was able to play on the trust of others, sparing her life.
 Interactions: Tituba dealt well with intolerant people and built on their trust.

5. My Impressions
 Like: Her ability to deal with intolerance and overcome.
 Dislike: The fact that she succumbed and admitted guilt.
 Personal connection: She reminds me of many strong women throughout history.
