

Defining Reading: Hands-on Investigation

Title or description of your book/text:

Who do you think is likely to read this text?

Under what circumstances (when and where) do you think someone would read this text?

Why do you think someone would read this?

Do you think someone would read this more than once? Why or why not?

What strategies or skills does a reader need to read this text? What makes reading this piece of text different from some of the texts your classmates are investigating?

Do you think you would enjoy reading this text? Why or why not?
