

Minor Character Online Profile Rubric

Criteria	Exceptional = 3	Acceptable = 2	Developing = 1
Creativity	The profile demonstrates exceptional creativity, offering a depth of detail that suggests a vivid sense of back story and life beyond the book.	The profile demonstrates some creative detail, but not enough to gain a clear, new sense of the character.	The profile primarily restates facts from the novel and demonstrates little creative thinking.
Plausibility	All of the details in the profile are historically accurate/plausible and complement (do not contradict) what is already known about the character.	Most of the details are historically accurate and complement what is already known about the character.	Many of the details are implausible; they are neither historically accurate nor complementary to what is already known about the character.
Group Effort	The group worked harmoniously to decide which creative ideas would best suit the project.	The group exhibited only a few problems in trying to decide which creative ideas would best suit the project.	The group relied primarily on one person's ideas and/or could not find consensus on which ideas would best suit the project.
Reflection	The reflection demonstrates sustained critical thinking about the choices made in the project and indicates reflection about how individual ideas were used.	The reflection demonstrates some critical thinking about the choices made and mentions some thoughts about how individual ideas were used.	The reflection offers little insight on the choices that were made or how individual ideas were used.
