

Character Resume Rubric

Objectives	4	3	2	1
Conveys knowledge of the historical and social context of the setting of the chosen play.
Applies straightforward, directly stated information from the play to represent the character.
Achieves full representation of the character by making inferences and compiling disparate/unconnected information from the play.
Represents creative thinking about the play, the character, and the task.
Displays knowledge of effective resume writing techniques.
If assigned as a group project: Made significant positive contributions to the project overall.

Key

- 4 = Ample evidence of full mastery of the objective; observations and presentation are insightful and perceptive
- 3 = Some evidence of mastery of the objective, but other aspects are merely competent; some observations may be less perceptive or less developed than others
- 2 = Some evidence of competency in the objective; observations may be superficial or underdeveloped
- 1 = Minimal evidence of competence; information is superficial or missing

Comments: