

Reflection Prompts

Look back at your Prior Knowledge and Interest Survey that you completed before starting The Hate U Give. What did you learn from others in the class that helped you understand the text more fully?

What are some things about the background research topics you want to learn more about after reading The Hate U Give?

What are questions you have about ideas and issues presented in the book and the essays by James Baldwin and Ta-Nehisi Coates?

Reflect on how we read The Hate U Give. What did you like and/or dislike about the group research and reading/discussion of supplemental essays as part of reading the main text?
