

Political Cartoon Analysis Peer Review

Your Name: _____

Author of the Guidelines: _____

1. What is good about the guidelines? What should not be changed? Why is it good?
2. How well did the guidelines help you identify the techniques in the cartoon that you analyzed? Are there techniques that weren't identified in the guidelines?
3. Did you have enough information in the guidelines to analyze everything that the cartoonist was communicating? What questions did you have about the cartoon that the guidelines didn't answer?
4. Is the style of the guidelines correct? Are the guidelines written in commands? Point out any places where the sentences should be revised.
5. How well do the illustrations demonstrate the guidelines? Give an example of an illustration that does a good job, and point out any place where the analysis needs more details.
6. What specific suggestions for improvement can you make?