

Questions for Reflection: Brochures

Which brochure did you find most effective and why? What did you learn from that brochure that you would like to apply to your brochure?

The topic for the brochure was the same one as for your _____ paper. What did you have to do differently with the topic to write about it for the brochure? How might your adaptations be useful to you in other writing situations?

For this assignment, I provided you with a number of handouts that asked questions or prompted your thinking in ways that I hoped would be helpful in completing the brochure effectively. In what ways were those handouts helpful strategies to you? In what ways were they not? How might you use what was helpful as a strategy for yourself in other writing when I'm not there to provide the handouts?

What strategies besides those you've already mentioned were helpful to you in writing the brochure? How might they be useful to you in other writing situations?

Questions taken from Deborah Dean's Strategic Writing: The Writing Process and Beyond in the Secondary English Classroom (NCTE, 2006).
