Poem of Possibilities—Questions for Reflection

- What pleases you most about your poem? Why?

- What detail in the piece is exactly right? Why?

- What part of the poem are you still dissatisfied with? Why?

- Where could you include some more specific details?

- What was the best piece of advice you got from your response group?

- Explain why you chose the poetic structure you did.

- What did you say about yourself that surprised you?

- In writing this piece, what did you discover about yourself as a writer? As a person?