

School Manners and Behavior Topics

- Respect and courtesy to self and others
- Positive and cooperative participation
- Responsibility for personal actions and belongings
- Meeting deadlines
- Using time wisely
- Taking turns
- Appropriate language, gestures, and actions
- Honesty and fairness
- Being considerate of others' feelings and space
- Hygiene
- Safety
- Talking and listening skills
- Attitude toward school, classmates, teacher, self

Since each one of these areas could probably encompass at least ten rules, the tasks at hand are to have students

- Decide which areas are the most important for the class to start off the year, and
- Formulate a specific rule related to each desired behavior.
