

Name: _____

What I Learned

Explain what you learned looking at hoax websites by finishing these statements:

Using online comprehension strategies helped me to understand and read websites in the following ways...

These are new things I learned to look for when I evaluate websites...

These are some ways to know a website is a hoax...

Here are some of the differences and similarities I noticed between real and hoax websites...