Sample Completed Ethical Question Star

What ethical values relate to trash on the football field?

I value cleanliness and safety. Trash on the football field makes football practice unsafe and unpleasant.

I care about my high school and the impression it makes on others. Trash on the football field suggests that those who attend the high school don’t care about their school.

Trash blowing around on the football field hurts the environment by adding more pollution to the world.

The student council takes pride in their school. They also care about fairness. They might think it unfair that someone besides those who attended the game had to pick up the mess.

Littering is against the law. Trash on the football field is an example of litter.

I care about my high school and the impression it makes on others. Trash on the football field makes football practice unsafe and unpleasant.