

Name: _____ Book: _____

---

---

Creating Prompts

---

---

1. Think about the section in the book that you read for today.
  - How did this part make you feel?
  - What questions do you have?
  - Have you ever experienced anything like what was going on in the book?
  - What would you have done if you were in a similar situation?
2. Write two quality prompts that can be used to start a good discussion about the book in your group. Use the checklists to help you create good prompts.

My first prompt could spark a good literature discussion because it

- is open-ended (might begin with why, tell me about, or explain)
- makes my group members think deeply
- relates to the book
- helps my group members relate the text to their own life experiences
- encourages my group members to express alternative viewpoints
- is interesting and leads to further questions or discussion

Prompt 1: _____

---

My second prompt could spark a good literature discussion because it

- is open-ended (might begin with why, tell me about, or explain)
- makes my group members think deeply
- relates to the book
- helps my group members relate the text to their own life experiences
- encourages my group members to express alternative viewpoints
- is interesting and leads to further questions or discussion

Prompt 2: _____

---

3. You will post your BEST prompt on the discussion forum. Your teacher will help you select which prompt to post.