
Elements of Persuasive Speaking

- The goal or thesis clearly presents the speaker's position.
- The speaker uses three or more relevant facts/reasons to support the thesis.
- The information is presented in a logical, easy-to-follow sequence.
- The speaker understands the intended audience and tailors the presentation accordingly.