

Developing Alternative Plots for Z for Zachariah Culminating Project Rubric

	Beginning	Emerging	Proficient	Exemplary	Score
	1	2	3	4
Comprehension	Few to no character actions or dialogue are present or consistent with the elements of the novel.	Some character actions and dialogue are consistent with the elements of the novel.	Most character actions and dialogue are consistent with elements of the novel.	All character actions and dialogue are consistent with elements of the novel.
Plot	Chain of events is only slightly logical to not logical at all. Reader is left confused by the events.	Most of the events but not all fit logically into the plot. Some unnecessary or missing events cause the reader to have to work to understand the story.	Chain of events is logical, but one or two unnecessary or missing events are slightly distracting but story is still easily followed.	Chain of events is logical and keeps the interest of the reader.
Format	Written as a list of events with no description.	Point of view varies or is written in second or third person. Some description present.	Written in journal format and Ann Burden's point of view is maintained throughout the piece.	Written in journal format and Ann Burden's point of view and description consistent with the original.	