Instructions: As you complete this project, reflect on the process by answering the questions below.

What were the steps I took as I worked on this project?

Did I include examples from the text to illustrate film terms?

Did I remember to include page numbers next to the examples from my book?

What did I learn most about film terms?

What did I enjoy most about the project?

What challenges did I find in this project?

What worked well in this project?

What would I do differently next time?

Is there anything I could use more help with?
