PEER EDITING CHECKLIST

Directions: Use this checklist as a guide as you review and edit your partner's personification poem. Follow the directions in the "Checklist Items" column and write your feedback in the "Comments or Suggestions" column.

Checklist Items	Comments or Suggestions
Check spelling. Circle any words that you think the author should look up in a dictionary.
Check for detail. Are their images in the poem that would benefit from more specific language? Write your suggestions in the box provided.
Check for confusing phrases. Are there any phrases in the poem that you think the author should reread to make sure they correspond to what he or she meant to say? Write your suggestions in the box provided.
Check punctuation. Circle any places where you think there should be a comma, a period, quotation marks, or a capital letter.
Look at the examples of personification in the poem. Think about which one you like the best. Write a short compliment in the box provided explaining why you especially like this particular image.
