

Online Art Resources

The Metropolitan Museum of Art's Educational Resources Page

http://www.metmuseum.org/education/er_online_resourc.asp

In addition to the numerous pieces housed online by the Met itself, you'll find links to a number of outstanding resources from their Educational Resources page.

Norman Rockwell Museum

<http://www.nrm.org/>

The Norman Rockwell Museum pages include background and details on many of Rockwell's works. Be sure to check the "Current Exhibits" links for images of the paintings currently on tour.

American Masters Database of Visual Artists

http://www.pbs.org/wnet/americanmasters/database/database_visual_arts.html

This PBS-sponsored Web site includes paintings and other works of visual art by American artists ranging from Richard Avedon to Andy Warhol.

WebMuseum, Paris

<http://www.ibiblio.org/wm/paint/auth/>

The "Artist Index" to the WebMuseum collection of online images of paintings, drawing, sculpture, and other artwork provides access to numerous classic images.

Online Tours of the National Gallery of Art

<http://www.nga.gov/onlinetours/onlinetr.htm>

Visit the Washington Gallery of Art without leaving your computer! You can choose one of the many images available as the focus for original narratives.

The Art Explorer

<http://www.artic.edu/artexplorer/>

Hosted by The Art Institute of Chicago, this site provides images from the Impressionist and Postimpressionist collection of the museum.