"Explode the Moment" Criteria

- Each category includes two or more examples

- Uses specific examples and language selected from text

- Includes a minimum of five direct quotations from text

- Makes inferences supported by evidence in the event that direct evidence is not available in the selected text. For example, "I think he feels worried when his meds run out after lunch because he says that leads to nothing but trouble for him."