

Problems

Clara wants to be with her mother.

Clara wants to escape from slavery.

Solutions

Clara and Jack leave the Home Plantation for North Farm. They find Clara's mother and travel north.

Clara makes a quilt that is a map to freedom in the north. The quilt remains with Aunt Rachel to help others.

Events

Clara is separated from her mother.

Aunt Rachel teaches Clara how to sew, to get her out of working in the fields.

Clara hears men talking about the runaways, the Ohio River, the Underground Railroad, Canada, and a map.

Aunt Rachel explains to Clara the location of Canada and the North Star.
Clara learns about maps.

Clara realizes she can make a map in a quilt to show the way to freedom.

People tell Clara information to help her make a quilt map.

Clara gives the finished quilt map to Aunt Rachel when she leaves the plantation.