

Student Self-Assessment

Name: _____

Date: _____

4	3	2	1	Score
Reading a picture book and seeing pictures before reading the novel or book helped me understand the main idea a lot more.	Reading a picture book and seeing pictures before reading the novel or book helped me understand the main idea more.	Reading a picture book and seeing pictures before reading the novel or book helped me understand the main idea a little more.	Reading a picture book and seeing pictures before reading the novel or book did not help me understand the main idea.
The pictures in the picture book and the questions I answered after reading helped me know how to make my own mind pictures.	The pictures in the picture book and the questions I answered after reading taught me how mind pictures work. I can make them with help from the teacher.	The pictures in the picture book and the questions I answered after reading taught me a little about making mind pictures, but I still cannot do it.	The pictures in the picture book and the questions I answered after reading did not teach me anything new. I cannot make mind pictures.
Watching the video clips helped me picture and understand the main idea a lot more.	Watching the video clips helped me picture and understand the main idea more.	Watching the video clips helped me picture and understand the main idea a little more.	Watching the video clips did not help me picture and understand the main idea; it confused me.
The teacher's discussion and questions about the reading after watching the video clips helped me understand the reading a lot more.	The teacher's discussion and questions about the reading after watching the video helped me understand the reading.	The teacher's discussion and questions about the reading after watching the video helped me understand the reading a little better, but I still have many questions.	The teacher's discussion and questions about the reading after watching the video did not help me understand the reading any better, and I still have many questions.
Using the Draw Aloud helped me understand the book's main idea much more.	Using the Draw Aloud helped me understand the book's main idea a little more.	Using the Draw Aloud helped me understand the book's main idea more, but there is still a lot I do not understand.	Using the Draw Aloud did not help me understand the book's main idea more. I still have many questions.

Drawing out my thoughts and visualizing pictures after reading something helps me understand what I'm reading much better.	Drawing out my thoughts and visualizing pictures after reading something helps me understand what I'm reading a little better, but I need more practice.	Drawing out my thoughts and visualizing pictures after reading something helps me understand what I'm reading better than before, but I still need more practice because it is difficult to do.	Drawing out my thoughts and visualizing pictures after reading something does not help me understand what I'm reading any better.
I was able to make mind pictures before these lessons and now I can make them better.	I was somewhat able to make mind pictures before these lessons, but I still need more practice.	I was not able to make mind pictures before these lessons, and now I can somewhat, but I still need more practice.	I was not able to make mind pictures before these lessons, and I'm still having trouble doing it.

Total: _____
(total possible = 28)

Evaluation of total score:

