

ONLINE LITERATURE CIRCLES: SELF ASSESSMENT

	Always	Usually	I need to improve in this area
I sent e-mail messages when they were due
I gave my best effort when I was asked to write a response
The e-mail messages I sent were written with correct spelling and punctuation
I followed the reading schedule and read the assigned sections
I contributed to group discussions in class
I told the members of my group why I chose this book
I told the members of my group what I learned about the culture portrayed in this book
During a group discussion I explained the ways in which I was able to relate events in this book to events in my life (text-to-self connections)
I listened respectfully when others contributed to group discussions
I rated this book on the Teenreads.com website

My Comments:

I was asked to read and discuss a text both online and with a group in my classroom. I am pleased with my work because I

I could improve my work by

Someday our class may do a similar project. The next time we read a text together, I suggest that we (Suggest changes such as sending e-mail responses to more people, lengthening the time allotted to read the sections, etc.
