

Peer Response Sheet

What is the thesis or main idea of the essay's argument? How clear and engaging is it?

What are some specific things the introduction does to bridge the reader to the essay and its argument?

What are the main sub-points of the essay? How well do they relate clearly to the overall argument?

Which subpoints are supported adequately with evidence and explanation? Which might need additional support?

Peer Response Sheet

What are the main strengths of the current draft?

What other advice can you offer to improve the current draft?

What are a few approaches the author might take to conclude the essay in its current form?

Goals for Revision (to be completed by essay author):

1.

2.

3.