

Peer Review Questions

1. Describe the character that is the focus of the piece in 1–2 sentences.
2. What is the audience and purpose for the character in the piece? Why is he/she telling about the Golden Shovel, and who is he/she telling?
3. How does the character feel about the days spent at the Golden Shovel?
4. Note three creative details or descriptions from the piece, or places where the author could add details or descriptions.
5. What do you know about the character's personality and life after reading the piece? What do you still want to know about the character?
6. How well does the language match the character, audience and purpose? What would you change to strengthen the language?
7. What is your favorite thing about the piece?
8. What change would you make to improve the piece?