

Student Name: _____

.....

Writing in the World

.....

As people give their "Write-Talks", please answer the questions in each box.

Type of text: 1. Why did the person write this text? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> 2. Who was the intended audience? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> 3. What are the features of this text? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> 4. What did this person do before and during the composition of this text to make sure it turned out well? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	Type of text: 1. Why did the person write this text? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> 2. Who was the intended audience? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> 3. What are the features of this text? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> 4. What did this person do before and during the composition of this text to make sure it turned out well? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
--	--

Type of text:

1. Why did the person write this text?

2. Who was the intended audience?

3. What are the features of this text?

4. What did this person do before and during the composition of this text to make sure it turned out well?

Type of text:

1. Why did the person write this text?

2. Who was the intended audience?

3. What are the features of this text?

4. What did this person do before and during the composition of this text to make sure it turned out well?

What trends did you notice as people gave their "Write-Talks"?
