

The Cat in the Hat Projects

Option #1: Character Analysis Essay

Write an essay that uses psychoanalytical criticism to analyze a character from The Cat in the Hat to explain how the character contributes to the plot and theme of the work.

1. An argument that states how the character's personality contributes to the plot and theme
2. At least two examples of indirect characterization as support
3. An explanation of how each piece of support supports your main argument.

Option #2: Evaluative Essay

Write an essay that uses the id, ego, and superego to explain the behavior of a character in The Cat in the Hat. Your essay should include the following:

1. An argument that states whether the character is dominated by the id, ego, or superego
2. At least two examples of indirect characterization as support
3. An explanation of how each piece of support supports your main argument.