

Letter to the Editor Peer Review Questions

1. Does the letter begin with a salutation and end with a signature block?
2. What issue is the character discussing? Is the issue named in the first sentence or paragraph?
3. In the first paragraph, what main reason does the letter writer give for writing? What position is the character taking on the issue?
4. What specific points does the character use to support the position taken in the letter?
5. How does the letter conclude? Is the conclusion appropriate for the letter?
6. What advice would you give the author of this letter?
7. What did you like the most about this letter? Why?