

Group Reflective Assessment

In order to assess your Doodle Splash activity, group members should discuss and then write a reflective narrative answering the following questions:

1. What steps did you take in the process of constructing your Doodle Splash?
2. How did you utilize your group to analyze the doodle journals?
3. How did you utilize your group to choose the doodles and arrangement on the Doodle Splash?
4. What problems did your group encounter in doing this project?
5. How did your group overcome these problems?
6. How well did you cooperate within your group on your project?
7. Summarize how well you think your group worked and how you feel about your final project.
