

Logo Analysis Assignment Reflection Questions

What did you learn about the company or product you chose by analyzing its logos over time?

How did your claim change as a result of sharing ideas with your classmates who analyzed the same logo across time?

What are some things you'll be able to notice now when you look at advertisements in print or online/television?

Why might the knowledge and skills you developed in this lesson be important in your life as a consumer?