

Dear Parents,

ReadWriteThink.org believes in the importance of literacy outside of school and is pleased to introduce you to a collection of Tips and Activities for use at home. These resources span grades K-12 and cover important topics, such as “How to Help a Child Choose a Book” and “How to Be Safe Online.” As parents, you can use the information to feel more confident in helping your child develop as a skilled reader and writer.

To find this collection of resources online, visit ReadWriteThink.org’s Parent & Afterschool Resources:

<http://www.readwritethink.org/parent-afterschool-resources/spanish>.

You’ll find a list of Tips and Activities in both English and Spanish.

We hope that you will find these resources helpful in working with your child beyond the school day.

Sincerely,

The Team at ReadWriteThink.org