

Writing Genres

Record information about each genre as we discuss them in class. The first one has been done as an example.

GENRE	DESCRIPTION	EXAMPLE	WHY USE THIS GENRE?
Newspaper/ Online Articles	Informative writing. Usually short, to the point, and attempts to be unbiased.	Article in an online news source such as msnbc.com about a national event.	Good way to share important information with a large audience about a specific topic or event.
Encyclopedia Entries
Letters to the Editor/ Editorials
Short Stories (fiction or non-fiction)
Essays (academic)
Poetry
Journals (personal)
Blogs (public)
Letters (personal and business)			