Sample Haiku (Written by 6th Grade Students)

Icy frost on grass Slowly, sadly, melting off
Under the harsh sun

-Tomer

Swaying swings Making but a squeak
They sound so sad

-Shani

Red, ripe tomato Fly slowly drains its color Then quickly retreats

-Tomer

Children playing Swinging higher and higher They suddenly jump off.

-Shira

A lone butterfly Sitting on a flower
It flies into the sky

-Shira

A lonely ball Sits unwanted, so still Isolated from the world

-Sydney
Sample Haiku (Written by 6th Grade Students)

crispy, crunchy leaves covering the moist, damp ground somewhere a bird chirps

- Mira

speckled, splashing fish hearing footsteps from the Japanese bridge cool misty air

- Mira

a lonely frog sitting on a cold stone a wet swamp

- Abigail

a howling wolf angry at the moon
a cold winter night

- Abigail

birds chirp on treetops flying with the falling leaves Dying bamboo, why?

- Arielle
Sample Haiku (Written by 6th Grade Students)

cool water,
flows in the lake Dragonflies flutter

-Arielle

Waterfall-flowing into the cooling, blue water A rock’s lonely tears

-Sabrina

cool spring breeze blows thin, green bamboos swing slowly ripples in the pond

-Sabrina

Sobbing dragonfly laying on a rock one wing hurt, wing falling off

-Helena

Shaded meadow
Snow falling, once again Cold icy breeze

-Helena
