

Design Reflection

What design elements did you use in your art work? (Color, shape, size, space, texture, balance, foreground, background, layout, etc.)

Explain how you used these design elements to express the meaning of your action phrase.

Compare your art work to Leo Lionni's art work in Little Blue and Little Yellow.

What have you learned about the importance of design for telling a story?