

Peer-Editing Form for Argumentative Essay

Directions: Check your partner's paper for the following items and write comments.

Topic	Comments
Does the introduction engage the reader?
Copy the thesis of the essay.
What side is the writer on?
What are two claims that the writer mentions from the other side?	1. 2.
Does the writer refute these claims using facts, reasons, or evidence?
List any emotionally charged words that the writer might want to change.
List two facts that are particularly relevant and credible for making the reader want to consider the writer's viewpoint.	1. 2.
List one idea that might need some work to accomplish the goal of making the reader consider the writer's viewpoint.
Do ideas seem connected? Explain where more transitions might be needed.
Does the conclusion clearly restate which side the writer is on?
Does the conclusion summarize the issue?
List any grammar or spelling errors you find.	