

Reflection: Analytical Paper with Haiku

Name: _____

1) What aspect of writing this paper was most difficult for you? Why do you think you found this difficult?

2) What part of this paper makes you most proud? Why?

3) Explain the process you went through to write both the analytical paper and the haiku. Discuss what aspects of the process contributed most to the success of your work.

4) Did writing the haiku help you to clarify the central point of your paper? Discuss this.

5) How has writing this paper and haiku helped you to grow as an analytical writer? In other words, what comes more easily to you now? What do you feel more confident about in terms of this kind of writing?