

Student Reflection Sheet

What's the best line in your review? Why?

What's one thing you would like to do to improve your review, if only you knew how to do it?

In writing this review, what did you discover about your text that you didn't realize before?

After reading your review, what question(s) might a reader still have?

What do you think is the one thing a reader is most apt to take away from your review?
