

Student Assessment/Reflections

- What is your opinion of the minimalist style? Do you like/dislike it? Why?
- How does the minimalist style differ from your usual writing style?
- Which of the minimalist characteristics do you think you were most successful in using in your piece? Why?
- What do you think is the strongest line in the story? Why?
- What did you struggle most with in creating this story in the minimalist style? Why do you think that was difficult?
- What was the best piece of advice you got from your response group?
- What was the most significant thing you learned in this study of minimalism?