

Characterization Self-Assessment

1. What revision in your story are you most proud of?
2. If you had a chance to write another story, what would the main character of the story be like and why?
3. What would you like to improve about your writing? What writing techniques would you like to know more about?