

PLOT PLAN

A plot is a sequence of events in a story that includes the following parts:

- Exposition: introduces the story, setting, and characters
- Rising Action: the first conflict or problem appears in the story. The action develops as the conflict becomes more intense and complicated
- Climax: the most exciting part or high point
- Conclusion: the resolution of the problem and ending

