

Teacher's Assessment for the Lesson

A World of Readers: Libraries Around the World

Objectives	Group	Yes	No	Comments
The groups remained on task when asked to conduct research.
The students answered the questions on the research worksheet.
The students composed and answered two original questions.
The students were attentive during oral presentations.
The whole-class discussions indicated that students developed a global perspective and a broader understanding of the types of library services available throughout the world.
Students completed the self-assessment checklist satisfactorily.				