

My Task List: Boston Massacre

Name: _____

Date: _____

Task	Possible Points	Self-Assess	Teacher Assess
Clear and accurate understanding of propaganda	40
Demonstrates understanding of how the Boston Massacre was a cause of the American Revolution (British/Colonial reaction)	40
Presents information to the class using eye contact and appropriate volume	20
Effectively uses comprehension strategies to make meaning (e.g., observations, inferences, visualizing, making connections, questioning)	30
Work is neatly and accurately written/drawn	20
Total Possible Points	150
Extension activities for optional extra credit	Points vary

Options for extension activities: (other ideas can be approved)

- Find examples of propaganda in current newspapers, magazines, journals, or other publications. Give an oral presentation explaining why the examples are propaganda.
- Write a 3-to-5-paragraph essay explaining the effects of propaganda. Use specific historical and/or current events to support your ideas. Use the Essay Map tool at <http://www.readwritethink.org/materials/essaymap>.
- Create an example of propaganda that we may see today. In 2 to 3 paragraphs explain who would be affected by this propaganda.