

Change Reflection Questions

1. Who in this text is undergoing change?
2. How does this character respond to change?
3. Do other characters provide help or advice for the character that is undergoing change? What advice do they give?
4. What does the character learn about change?
5. In what way is this text a literary allegory?