

Drama Reflection

Use this sheet as you reflect on your understanding of the dramatic elements of your group's play. Reflect on your play, and then answer the following questions.

1. What dramatic element worked particularly well in the scene your group wrote?
2. What changes to the plot order, if any, did your group need to make in order for your adaptation to be effective?
3. How well did your adaptation reflect the characterization of the original novel?
4. What symbols are included in your group's play?
5. What imagery did your group include in the play?
