

New Thoughtshots for An Angel for Solomon Singer by Cynthia Rylant (Orchard, 1992)

Example #1 (Internal Dialogue)

Solomon Singer thought about how nice it would be to have his own home.
He imagined sitting in a rocking chair with his cat snuggled up on his lap and his dog beside him.
He thought of rocking all day in front of a warm fireplace.

Example #2 (Flashback)

After reading page 8:

Solomon Singer remembered when he was a boy in Indiana.
He felt the wheat brush his face as he ran through the fields toward his home.
