

Peer Response to Sports Poetry

Read your partner's poem carefully and respond to the following to help your partner make his or her poem even better.

1. Underline all of the examples of onomatopoeia in your partner's poem. In a sentence or two, tell your partner about one of the especially effective (well-placed and meaningful) examples of onomatopoeia.
2. Put a star next to any word or phrase that creates a great image.
3. Give your partner one compliment about his or her poem.
4. What is one question you have about your partner's poem?
5. What is one suggestion you have to improve your partner's poem?
