Global Warming Trial
Jury Member's Record of Witnesses

When you present on the stand, you are a witness. Every other moment in the trial, however, you will be a jury member whose job is to be as fair as possible in weighing all of the evidence presented before you. To help you with this important task, you will take notes on the key points stated by the witnesses and lawyers throughout the trial. By the end of the trial, as you see the points you have assembled for and against Alixicoís guilt, your list will help you come to a reasoned decision.
