

Name: _____ Date: _____

Evaluating the Audio

Audio file being evaluated: _____

Answer the questions and provide examples from the audio file to support your answer.

What about the reader's voice made you want to listen to this text?
How did the reader's voice help you to understand the story better?
How did the reader create a sense of mystery?
Did the reader project well with good volume?
Did the reader use good vocal expression?
Did the reader articulate (speak clearly)?
Did the reader use an appropriate rate of speech – not too fast, not too slow?

continued

Evaluating the Audio (continued)

Were there any special places in the story where the reader used a specific tone to indicate emotions?
What tone did the reader use when describing the setting?
What tone did the reader use for the protagonist?
What tone did the reader use for the antagonist?
How did the reader create suspense?
Were sound effects used? If so, how did these add to the meaning in the story?
How would you rate this audio performance overall?	Excellent      Good      Fair      Poor
Explain your rating.	