

Text Messaging Assignment

Choose one character from Lord of the Flies and write a minimum of five text messages describing different events throughout the book as though the character is communicating either with one specific audience or several different audiences off the island.

Be prepared to present your text messages to the class to determine how effectively your messages suggest the identity of the sender as well as the situation, purpose, and audience.

Additional requirements:

- 100 characters minimum for each text, with a maximum of 160 characters
- Appropriate language for school

The character who is texting is:

Situation/Purpose	Audience	Message