

Descriptive Writing Analysis

As we read Chapter 11 of The Giver, pay close attention to the three memories that The Giver transmits to Jonas. Notice how the author uses words, phrases, and details that appeal to the senses to convey the memory. Use the chart below to take a closer look at how descriptive language contributes to the effect of the chapter.

Then use sensory language to describe a feeling of your choice. On the back of this page, use those sense words, phrases, and details to write a paragraph that describes the feeling.

	Snowfall and sled ride	Sunshine	Sunburn	Your choice:
Sight
Sound
Touch
Taste
Smell				